

Bowen Family Systems Theory Educational Group for Religious Leaders

At times, serving others in ministerial practice can be challenging. Bowen Family Systems Theory can help to empower and strengthen one's understanding of ministry. Explore all the interconnected systematic daily realities of your ministerial leadership and decide how you wish to respond grounded in God's call for your life. This educational seminar examines the practice of ministry through the 8 concepts from Bowen Family Systems Theory and the 9th concept, the Function of Spirituality. The journey also includes personal ministerial experiences and stories of Jesus from the Gospels.

The Basics

- ◆ Continuing education opportunity offering personal and professional growth. Open to all, those new and those with past experience in Bowen Family Systems Theory.
